Brides-Elect Honored.

On last Thursday afternoon the ladies of the Woman's Improvement association of Trinity-Ridge school entertained at a miscellaneous shower for the brides-elect, Misses Laurie Aull and Annie Putnam.

Arriving promptly at five o'clock the guests were ushered into the auditorium which was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being green and white. There they were presented with dainty booklets and asked to write for each a good wish. After the good wishes were written the booklets were presented to the young ladies by Mrs. W. N. Austin.

Mrs. John D. W. Watts then came in, followed by Mrs. Sue Pitts, representing a typical old black mammy, who had come in to give the brides-to-be a few well chosen words of advice and bid them farewell before they sailed forth on the sea of matrimony. Accompanying Black Mammy were two little pikaninnies, William Dorroh Owings and Sue Esther Pitts, who bore huge green and white baskets filled with many useful and beautiful presents, which were tokens of love and the esteem in which these young ladies were held by the community in which they had so faithfully discharged their duty as teachers.

Cream and cake were served by the following bevy of beautiful young ladies: Misses Maud and Ella Langston, Minnie Irving, Mattie Kate Owings, Lucille and Martha Pitts, Sara Davis and Florence Williams.

RURL SCHOOL PRIZES.

Over One Thousand Dollars to be Awarded Next Year.

Through the support of the state department of education, the South Carolina School Improvement Association is able to offer $1,250.00 in prizes to be awarded in 1914. This amount has been divided into 10 prizes and will be given to the schools showing the greatest improvement during the given length of time. There will be 10 first prizes of $50 each and 30 second prizes of $25 each. Regulations governing the award of these prizes are as follows:

Improvements must be made between October 1st, 1913 and December 1st, 1914.

Only rural schools can compete for these prizes. Districts barred by the State high school act or the State rural graded school act are ineligible to enter the competition.

All applications must be sent through the county superintendent of education, rural school supervisor, or county organizer of School Improvement associations.

All reports must be made on the printed blanks furnished by the association.

In making application for a prize the Clean-up Day score card, a brief description, a photograph, and any evidence of improvement should accompany the regular prize score card.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Eva Hite,
Pres. S. C. School Imp. Assn.
